Monitoring the activities of flying clubs by DGCA

*339. SHRI PREM CHAND GUPTA: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that flying clubs are charging large amounts of money from people for flying training and are taking an undue long time to complete their training; and

(b) whether the DGCA monitors this activity and, if so, what steps are being taken to protect the interests of the trainees?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCATING (SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM): (a) No such complaint has been received.

(b) The Directorate General of Civil Aviation is closely monitoring the activities of the flying clubs and is protecting the interests of the trainees by providing subsidy to 31 flying clubs. It also carries out inspections and audit from time to time.
